

SIGN UP FOR eNOTICE FOR CIVIL CASE TYPES!

Email case management notices are replacing postcard notices:

- ◆ Effective August 1, 2013 for attorneys
- ◆ Effective November 1, 2013 for pro se litigants

Register your email address!

Attorneys: Register in the Law Division or in a Suburban District, using the Cook County Attorney Code form, or download the Cook County Attorney Code form from the Court Clerk's web site: www.cookcountyclerkofcourt.org

Pro Se Litigants: Register for each case on the Civil Cover Sheet form, the Appearance form, or the Pro Se Opt-in Form available in all Civil Divisions.

If you register your email address and opt in for eNotices, ALL notices, both mandatory and non-mandatory, will be sent electronically to your registered email address.

If you do not opt in, you will:

- Only receive the statutorily-mandated postcards by mail; and
- Incur the postage costs for the mailing, pursuant to 705 ILCS 105/27.2a(h). Non-mandatory postcards will not be mailed.

For more information on eNotice and to see the Clerk's Office's Electronic Notice Policy visit www.cookcountyclerkofcourt.org

SIGN-UP for eNOTICE NOW!